Adirondack Rug Braiding

Scenic Landscapes & Garden

The weekend course (for two students) is designed to teach the art of rug braiding in an intimate setting. The former grange hall, built in 1863, has been restored by Helen Condon and now houses her residence and the 2nd story studio.

Students will learn the steps in making a round, oval, and square rug. The weekend price is all inclusive: twelve hours of lessons, a kit for a 2' x 4' rug of your choice, needle, twine, clamp, instruction booklet, sleeping accommodations, meals, beverages, unlimited phone calls, and use of the internet to retrieve your messages.

Accomodations and Meals Included.

RUG BRAIDING WEEKEND

The studio, guest room and private bath are on the second floor. The bedroom holds antique twin beds with a dresser for your clothes. The weekend is casual so there will be no need for “dressy” outfits. Telephone calls can be made to anywhere in the US, Canada, and Puerto Rico and we also have high speed internet for your use. There is an Ivers and Pond piano if you care to play.

Helen Condon

TEACHER:

Leading the weekend will be Helen Condon, owner of Adirondack Rug Braiding. She received her B.A. in Theater and Writing from the University of New York at Potsdam with a semester in Liverpool, England. Nothing like studying the Bard on his own turf! While completing her Master of Fine Arts Degree in Creative Writing from the University of North Helen wrote a memoir entitled, The Big Rug, that takes the reader through the grieving process following her husband's death and making the biggest rug she ever attempted. She has taught and demonstrated rug braiding in art centers throughout the Adirondacks including Old Forge Art Center and Great Camp Sagamore in Raquette Lake as well as Schoharie River Center, TAUNY (Traditional Arts In Upstate New York), St. Lawrence County Art Central in Potsdam and the Hand

Weaving Art Center in Clayton New York. Helen was one of the first artists to be a member and enjoy the benefits of the NATC (Northern Adirondack Trading Cooperative) initiated in part by then US Senator Hillary Rodham Clinton.

Helen has been braiding rugs for over 50 years.

YOUR RUG

Two weeks before the class date students are asked to choose the rug they wish to make from the selection on the web site: www.adirondackrugbraiding.com.

If none of the rugs fit your color scheme a personal one will be designed for you. The entire kit will be ready for you upon your arrival.

WEEKEND ITINERARY:

FRIDAY

There is a flight by Cape Air from Albany into Massena arriving at 6:30 p.m. and if you choose this venue, transportation will be provided for you. Upon arrival Friday evening students will enjoy a tour of the Circa 1863 boarding house and adjoining garden. After settling in they will enjoy beverages, snacks, and conversation in the living room or weather permitting at the stone table overlooking the river. A bath in the claw foot tub might be your choice of relaxation before bed.
